

Critical History of the Bible

A selection of Findings Collected from Internet Sources and Archeologists

The Guilt of the Church

- Throughout its history, Christianity has killed, murdered, liquidated, driven to death more than a billion people and led to starve billions of people, all in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has tortured, raped, violated, abused, oppressed and exploited billions of people in the most perverse ways, all in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has lied to, misled, deceived, brainwashed, manipulated, deluded, stupefied and led billions of people astray in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has stolen to a frightful extent, looted, robbed, expropriated, destroyed and driven to brutal poverty billions of people in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has enslaved and chained over a billion people, taken away their freedom and dignity and paid for their work with abysmal contempt in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has provoked more riots and rebellions, more wars than any other religion, as well as led the biggest and worst wars directly and indirectly in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has enriched itself immensely, created sinecures, betrayed, cheated and in diabolical way exercised power over people and their souls in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has mentally infected billions of people with ignorance, arrogance, ruthlessness, megalomania and psychosis, and with lies and falsehood in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Christianity is the main cause of the contamination, pollution, climate change, destruction of ecosystems, the destruction of resources and the destruction of the planet in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has made the lie to the truth and deformed love to sadism, perverted the true inner Spirit into a fool and mocked peace and justice in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has created an incredible amount of narcissism, neurosis, obsession, insanity, psychosis, megalomania, perversion and crime in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has sown cowardice, hypocrisy, duplicity, hatred, fear, guilt, depression, distrust, hopelessness, and psychological and physical violence throughout the world in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Christianity was and is seduced, driven and energized by the lust of death, suffering, the torturing, the guilt, the blood and the destruction of humanity in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has polluted the politicians, poisoned, demoralized, and made them mentally ill, incompetent in terms of managing people and blinded by the lies of religion in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Throughout its history, Christianity has distorted and deformed people with fairy tales, fantasies, superstitions, myths, legends, anecdotes, illusions, and heresies in the name of Jesus Christ.
- Christianity makes people infantile, blind, obedient, subservient, inept to think, adaptive, naive, trusting and neurotic sheep in the name of Jesus Christ.

Billions of believers and millions of priests as well as countless of self-declared Messiahs have misused the name of the true prophets for power and war, for genocide, for stealing land and commodities, for narcissistic satisfaction, out of stupidity or dishonesty and out of a spiritual aberration or religious psychosis. Nearly everything that remains is nothing but lies and deceit.

➔ All this has got nothing to do with the true and eternal Archetypes of the Soul.

Let's explore the essential content of the Christian Bible and its history.

There are 3 fundamentally different 'Holy Books':

1. The Torah reflects the history of the Jewish Religion with texts that originate from the 5th and late 7th century BC.

2. The 'New Testament' began with first single documents around 125 AD ('anno domini'). In the year 367 A.D. the first binding 'Holy Scriptures' ('Vulgate') were a collection of scrolls. The 'Old Testament' (from Jewish history BC) added to the New Testament is called the 'Bible'.
3. The Quran's origins with Mohammed include parts of the Old Testament and the New Testament.

De facto Christianity has 'stolen' (selected) texts from the Old Testament, the Jewish religion. The Islam has stolen (selected) texts from the Bible ('Vulgate') and from the Jewish religion. The Old Testament contents countless tales and stories originated hundreds of years back from many cultures and folks, from unknown sources. Selection, interpretation and (re-)-shaping of texts vary.

Forms of the Content

● Legends	● Fantasy stories	● Instructions
● Allegories	● Myths (tales)	● Orders
● Proverbs	● Letters	● Laws and Punishments
● Parables	● Prologues	● Rules for living
● Poems	● Love songs	● Historiographies
● Prayers	● Sagas	● Mission letters
● Monologues	● Narrations	● Religious edifications
● Dialogues	● Texts from supposed Prophets	● Direct words from God (Archangel Gabriel)
● Superstitions	● Dreams	● Direct word from (alleged) (holy) authors
● Fairytales, Tales	● Attributes of God	● Visions (from supposed 'divine' individuals)
● Historic Events	● Anecdotes

Oldest Scripts of the Bible

- The oldest conserved roll with a biblical text originated around 180 BC. Further biblical texts from this time only exist in fragments.
- Remains of Papyrus with texts from the New Testament originated from the 2nd and 3rd century AD.
- The oldest text of the New Testament is a fragment from the Gospel of John, originated around 125 AD.
- Other oldest texts of the New Testament originated from the 4th and 5th century AD.
- The oldest handwritten remains of the New Testament are from the 2nd to the 7th century AD.
- Today there are over 4000 known papyrus rolls; out of which around 100 small fragments of the New Testament.
- Today there are around 5000 known writings that contain the New Testament in parts or as a whole.

➔ So called primary texts of the "Holy Scriptures" do not exist.

The Origins of the Old Testament

- Some texts date back to the time 250-100 BC, others from the time around 539 BC.
- The 5 books of Moses were not written by Moses; they are also not 3200 years old.
- The essential texts of the Old Testament originate from the late 7th century BC.
- The Old Testament is fully the work of subsequent editors.
- The Pentateuch, the first five books of the Hebrew Bible, is a mosaic from different sources.

Authors of the Bible (New Testament)

- Many authors and editors have worked on the development of the 'Holy Scriptures'.
- Up until the year 1008 there were continuous text editing from many unknown authors.
- Countless unknown copyists redacted and copied over and over again the texts of the Holy Bible, added, changed or deleted pieces.

- There are many unknown authors and thousand fold editing of the texts over many centuries; much of it from oral transmissions.
- The Bible was written by completely different, mostly unknown people with differing ideas and views and at different times over centuries.
- The authors of the four Gospels are unknown; the names are made up.
- The Pauline epistles came around the year 50-60 AD. But Paul did not know Jesus.
- Jesus died around the year 30; and there is not a single witness from the time.
- There is not one authentic text (knowledge) about Jesus and what he taught.
- There is no authentic biographical knowledge about most of the protagonists in the Old Testament and the New Testament.

➔ Nothing, absolute nothing is authentically documented about the prophets, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, the Apostles, the Gospels, or anything spoken or written from God and Spirit.

Old Testament with Old Stories

- It is proven that much did not and could not have happened as stated in the Old Testament.
- There are many oral and written sources of unknown origins and stories.
- Historical facts were inflated, distorted, mixed up and placed into a different time.
- Many essential untruths have been determined in the Old Testament.
- The texts of the Bible that relate to previous times were only written down much later.
- In the Bible are Commandments that originate from the Old Babylonia, the Hammurabi Codex.
- In many old civilizations there were myths about floods, also in India, China and America.
- Much already originated from the Epic of Gilgamesh from the Mesopotamian region.
- Most of the religious customs have their roots in the Asia Minor and Egyptian region.

➔ The Old Testament turns out to be an artifact with many erratic statements from different societies over millennia.

Spiritual Content of the Bible

● The story of God with the people	● Crucifixion, resurrection, and salvation
● The creation of the earth and the people	● Redemption, forgiveness, exoneration
● God's word, declaration of belief	● Heaven, hell, purgatory, Paradise
● Tale of the salvific history	● Wonderful interventions of God
● Testimony of the belief of the "risen JC"	● Communication with transcendental creatures
● Revelation testimony of God	● Existence of individual transcendental creatures
● Portrayal of the afterlife, heaven and hell	● Doctrine of salvation, symbols, cult, rituals
● Contents reflect longstanding traditions	● Revelation of God and eternity

Religious Tales and Talks

- The Old Testament is based on testimonies and talks of the creation of the earth, the prehistory of mankind, the election, the history of salvation.
- The contents are put together out of a variety of texts: Tales, stories, law collections, testimonies, pieces of wisdom, chronicles, liturgical and poetical texts, lamentations, love songs, family sagas, legends ...
- The aim of the one-God-movement is to create a world epic as collection of historical scrolls, memories, sagas, popular tales, anecdotes, kingly propaganda, prophecies, partly original or copied from previous editions.

➔ Let's create a new tale: God must learn everyday from the increasing lies, stupidity and madness of humanity.

Practical Content of the Bible

- Sheds light on behavior, thinking, feeling, valuing
- War and more war; endless repetitions
- Love, hope, trust, justice, (to God), etc.
- The good and the bad people (characteristics)
- Partly understood as historically authentic
- Moral-ethical opinions and views
- Religious world-views, systems of interpretation
- Philosophical thoughts and systems of thinking
- Partly also political and theocratic justification
- Life practical instructions (norms, rules, values)
- Stories about heroes (that never existed as such)

Nothing New in the Bible

- The creation of the world according to old Sumerian beliefs is similar to the stated one in the Bible.
- The birth of Moses, his childhood and youth are consistent with legends from the time in the Mesopotamian region.
- The Ten Commandments can be found, slightly different, in the Egyptian Books of the Dead.
- Countless conceptions and tales in the Bible originate from other civilizations and religions.
- Biblical and archaeological information indicates a concoction of cults.
- The exodus from Egypt is a conglomeration of legends from different epochs.
- The book of Joshua is a collection of sagas, heroic tales and local myths.
- The Genesis (1st book of Moses) is a concoction of various nomadic tales.

Core Findings of Bible Research

- All stories in the Old Testament and New Testament are legends, myths, sagas, fictions, anecdotes, full of manipulation and deceit.
- The Christian Bible is a chaotic and corrupted collection of texts. There are countless contradictions in the Bible. There is practically no real historical substance. The four Gospels are never a biography of J.C.!
- Today it is proven that the Christian dogmas already existed in the Middle East and Far East, at Jesus' time as well as thousands of years before his epoch; for example:

The spiritual procreation, the physical resurrection, the mother of God, the son of God, the savior, the messiah, the prophet, the angels, the devil, God, the eternal life, the paradise, hell, the miracles, the dogma of the trinity, the crucifixion as a sin offering, the story about Adam and Eve, the natural death as a punishment, the creation as the beginning of the salvific history, and all the sacraments such as baptism, the remission, the last supper, etc.

➔ Nothing is new and authentically 'Christian' in that sense!

The Gospels

- 60 Gospels existed in the first centuries. The ecclesiastic authorities have chosen 4 editions, written between the years 70 and 120.
- Not one has been written by an eyewitness. Not one original Gospel exists, not even first transcripts. The authors are unknown.
- No apostle has ever written such texts. The first 100 years after Jesus' death no historian even took notice of J.C.
- These manifold texts are simply copywriting, new additions and eliminations, smaller and bigger changes.

- All texts are made by lies, falsifications, and displacements. The contradictions are countless.
- The Gospels consists in innumerable statements that are quoted billions of times by churchgoers: “And Jesus said ...”; or: “I am ...”. But nobody knows what Jesus said!
- There is nothing concrete that one knows about Jesus.
- Nevertheless, such words are even presented as authentic words of God!

➔ The constitution of the Holy Bible does not allow for an understanding of these texts as ‘holy’ or ‘inspired from God’.

Fabricated religious history unveiled from many archeologists

- The savage story, that Abraham sacrificed his son at the will of God, is a legend.
- The mass exodus of the Jews from Lower Egypt never happened.
- Jericho never had a wall and did not even exist at the time of Joshua.
- A federal state of Israel and Judaea never existed.
- A settlement of Israel through Abraham never happened.
- Abraham never existed.
- It is impossible that Isaac ever existed.
- The whole story about Jacob is false.
- Portrayed findings are clues that the legends about Joseph were an invention.
- The incidents of the 12 sons of Jacob in Egypt are to be seriously put in question.
- The ascertained data from excavations in Egypt are not compatible with Moses data.
- A mass exodus from Egypt under Ramses appears to be completely invented.
- An over 100 year invasion under Joshua could hardly have occurred.
- A ‘golden age’ of Israel under David and Salomon is simulated.
- There are no archaeological findings of the structures of a kingdom of David.
- A large kingdom with a temple city Jerusalem did not exist in the times of Judah.
- Archaeological findings indicate that the invasion under King Josia did not happen.
- False stories about the King Omri, Ahab and Isebel camouflage the history of Israel.
- Dictionary: ‘Semites’: Are members of any of a number of peoples of ancient southwestern Asia including the Akkadians, Phoenicians, Hebrews, and Arabs.
- Dictionary: ‘Semitic’ is a linguistic and cultural classification. Arabs, Arameans, Babylonians, Carthaginians, Hebrews, Phoenicians, and many more that speak ‘Semitic’ language.

The Early Catholic

- The oldest conserved Greek texts from the New Testament originate from the 4th and 5th century.
- The ancient Christians that rejected the virgin birth of Jesus were considered a sect.
- The Gospel of St. Matthew did not know a virgin birth of Jesus, instead a natural procreation through Joseph and Mary. The idea of a virgin birth originates from ancient idolatrous cults.
- The new (Christian) state religion in the year 380 systematically burned all the old Christian scriptures. Source texts and several other Gospels were eliminated by the newly established Church.
- There are pressing suspicions that the biggest library in ancient times, in Alexandria were burned down on purpose in the interest of the new state Church. There were already then ‘sect hunters’.
- There are numerous essential contradictions in the Bible that reveal, that the many authors with differing knowledge and consciousness worked on this ‘Holy Book’.

The Biblical Sham

- Considering the development of the biblical texts it is an absurdity to allege that God has written or dictated these texts, or that these texts have been written by inspiration through God. There, where lies don’t lead further, there is the need for an untouchable belief.

- It's absolutely perverse to teach and claim: "Our belief lives from the relationship to the Holy Bible, inspired by the Holy Spirit."
- But indeed: the belief can't be better than these texts and the state of the mind of its authors, teachers, and followers.
- Christian dogmas, teachings and practices completely ignore what makes a person to a genuine human being.

All the Christian dogmas, teachings and practices have got absolutely nothing to do with any part of the psychical-spiritual life (the inner life, the psychical-spiritual organism) of a person, of the psychical-spiritual development, and of a constructive self-forming for living and growing with love and the inner Spirit aiming 'completeness'.

The Impure Word of God

- The Bible can never be the pure 'word of God' and the 'dictation of the Spirit'.
- There are no comprehensible reports, apart from a few archetypal dreams that also need to be put into question.
- If everything is declared as the 'word of God', then one obtains a grotesque, chaotic, neurotic and schizophrenic image of God (as a warmonger); it appears that everything has gone astray on a fatal religious psychosis.
- The environment of the origination of the 'Holy Scriptures' is not 'divine', rather: power, wars, hate, power struggle, political interests, intrigues, murder, papal crimes, perversions, powerful and influential people, forgers, religious evildoers, etc.

The 'Error Free' Vulgate

- ☹ In the year 367 A.D. the first binding 'Holy Scriptures' (a collection of scrolls) commissioned by the Pope was created by Jerome: the 'Vulgate'.
- ☹ Vulgate: Latin translation, originally Greek (New Testament) and Hebrew (Old Testament).
- ☹ Previously numerous Latin translations existed, each one considerably differing from the other.
- ☹ The Roman-Catholic Church declared the Vulgate as 'error-free'.
- ☹ But later errors were found, already in 1590 the new 'error-free' edition was released ('Editio Sixtina').
- ☹ Already in 1592 this was then replaced by the new 'error-free' Editio Clementina.
- ☹ In the year 1598 another corrected and 'error-free' declared version of the Bible was released.
- ☹ This 1598 corrected Vulgate, the 'Editio Clementina', remained in use until the year 1907.
- ☹ Pope Pius X, then replaced the Vulgate, with the Nuova Vulgata – the fifth 'error-free' edition.
- ☹ Herewith the new Vulgate was again declared 'error free', from God as 'creator' and dictated by the Holy Spirit.
- ☹ In 1870 the Pope Pius IX declared the edition at the time as 'miraculous revelation', from the Apostles out of the mouth of Jesus Christ received dictated from the Holy Spirit. Yet the 'error-free' doctrine lasted until 1907.
- ☹ In 1870 the council declared the infallibility of the Pope.
- ☹ The Prayer of the Lord: During more than 1700 years Christians believed that God leads them into temptation: every day and everywhere and in any context menaces 'divine temptation'. The psychological impact was and is horrendous and fearful.
- ☹ In the year 2017 the Pope declared that the sentence "And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil" is an incorrect translation; however can't be correct. Indeed it does not make sense that God has a need to lead us into temptation.

And if all these fabrications and insanities are not enough to start thinking: Jesus can heal, Jesus can give life back to a dead person, Jesus heals blind man, Jesus feeds 5000, Jesus walks on water, Jesus transforms stone into bread and water in wine, Holy Mary Mother of God, Blessed Virgin Mary, Jesus' Physical Resurrection, Holy Mary's Physical Resurrection, and in total more than 40 wonders.

The Bible Today

- The Bible today is created to a complete work, of all the previous reigning interests of the past 3000 years.
- The Bible is the book of the Christian Churches that has been thousand fold changed always according to private, ecclesiastic and political interests.
- The Bible today is a chaotically plugged together anthology of unrelated texts that hundreds of anonymous authors, publishers and copywriters created, reworked, translated, falsified, and 'improved'.
- Over 2,000 diverse text variations and 250,000 variations of reading exist today.
- And these texts are translated today with many errors into 1,100 languages and dialects!

Nothing in the Bible is 'Holy'

- ➔ Nothing in the Bible or in the Church is 'error-free', 'unflawed', 'untouchable', or 'infallible', especially not the Pope or the 'magisterium' (the teaching authority of the Church).
- ➔ The many gruesome events of mass murder that according to the Bible were arranged, advocated, supported or even accomplished by a vengeful God himself are absolutely insane.
- ➔ The Roman-Catholic Church is since a long time a rigid, even fossilized psychopathic power apparatus, rooted in thinking from the Middle Ages, still as devilish as the inquisition of the times.
- ➔ The world view of the Bible, including the ideas about the creation of the world and the human being, corresponds to the spiritual horizon and knowledge of human beings from around 2000-3500 years ago.
- ➔ 2000 years of Christian and Christian Church history have prevented timings and contexts to be seen scientifically and historically in true form.

Religions are never 'infallible'

- Dogmas, religious teachings and practices ignore the psychical-spiritual life and the external life, a fundamental reality each human somehow has and is.
- A malformed and distorted mind results in a malformed and distorted religion (teaching, practices). Thus, religions don't care about adequate shaping of the mind (mental functions).
- All actual religions are archaic religions: they do neither teach nor practice an all-sided forming and development of the mental functions, not psychological-spiritual, not archetypal.
- Religions do not care for profound self-knowledge. They exclude the psychical dimensions of humans. They ignore the holistic (archetypal and practical) psychical-spiritual development.

- ➔ Without self-knowledge the psychical-spiritual development is impossible.
- ➔ Therefore religions are never infallible. They are an abuse and sham.

The Historic Failure of Religions to Create Peace on Earth

- 6bn people believe in a God with innumerable different ideas
- 2.2-2.4bn Christians + 1.5-1.8bn Muslims + 30 million Jews
- The history consists in 5,000+ years of ideas about God
- There are universities founded in the spirit of a religion
- 100,000's missionaries preach their psychotic and insane crap
- Buddha and his followers could not provide a breakthrough
- The chosen Jewish folk could not provide a breakthrough
- Jesus Christ and Christianity could not provide a breakthrough
- The Prophet Mohammed could not provide a breakthrough
- 100,000 wise masters over the past 3,000 years could not provide a breakthrough.

- ➔ Today, there is still absolutely no peace on earth!
- ➔ Something must be totally wrong with religion!

→ 7.6 billion humans (2017) haven't any idea how far away and how much disconnected from God and his Spirit they are and live with religion.

- Billions of people pray regularly to God, but the world is at stake
- All the religious teaching has not been able to create peace on earth
- Countless wars with God, about God, the right God, the better God...
- Nonetheless 80% of the world population lives in poverty, misery, and despair
- All kinds of spiritual, religious, and ideological concepts failed

→ Most leaders have learnt nothing from the history!

→ Since millenniums historic mistakes have been repeated!

→ Humanity has lost its archetypal evolutionary path!

A Religion and Spirituality: Yes! But ...

- Religion in its origin and genuine meaning is fundamentally supportive and guiding for people, if rooted in the 'Spiritual Intelligence' and the 'Archetypes of the Soul', additionally balanced with the physical and mental existence (processes).
- Religion is insane and a sham if mental functions, the body, the behavior, terrestrial life, the environment and the Archetypes of the Soul are not integrated – with all their potentially possible positive developments.
- Genuine and true religion is something totally different from the today existing religions.

Religion and Spirituality: Yes! But ...

- Atheism is simply an expression of an undeveloped or malformed mind with a certain awareness of the hidden reality of the archaic religions.
- Atheism is an expression of absence of the psychical-spiritual development that follows the path of the Archetypes of the Soul.
- To believe in the archaic religious teaching is an expression of absence of the psychical-spiritual development that follows the path of the Archetypes of the Soul.

Concepts of Ideology versus Religion

→ Political and economic ideologies operate in the same ways as archaic religion:

- Capitalism, Socialism, Fascism, Liberalism, Consumerism, and other –isms are all separated from the genuine human being, the immanent meaning of life, and the Archetypes of the Soul.
- Religion, spirituality, psychology, politics, economy, business, culture, public education, and the entire world of sciences cannot ignore each other without severe consequences and in the end with the destruction of human evolution.
- Archaic, essentially fabricated and highly psychotic and insane religions and ideologies as we have today, preponderantly religions who are rooted in the Old Testament or in magic thinking in general, lead to the destruction of the creation, the elimination of the human evolution as a transcendental project.

Reincarnated Christ: Illusion or possible?

- It is known that since centuries here and there an individual claimed to be the Reincarnated Christ, offering a kind of psychotic rubbish.
- Today there are several individuals on earth claiming to be the 'Reincarnated Christ', offering a kind of infantile odd teaching.
- If Jesus would come back to earth or if Jesus would be already back, he would be the total nightmare for Christianity and the world.

- Imagine: He is a 'normal' man. You meet him at the supermarket. But you can't see his soul: "The King of the Holy Grail".
- Most Christians would shout: "Crucify Him! Destroy him and his life!" The motive is obvious: They all have heavy guilt as they live lies! Their insane 'card house' would crash.
- The collective Christian lies are so immense, so that they terribly fear the truth and must cover their lies with endless more lies.
- However a Reincarnated Christ is real or not, the challenge to find the truth about the 'Mystery of Mankind' is ultimately given today.
- The Archetypal Process of the Soul marks the authentic path to find back to the track of the truth for the 'Archetypal Human Evolution'.

The Christian, who believes ...

- in lies, falsifications, forgeries, is himself a liar, forger, false person.
- in a corrupt work and corrupt leadership becomes corrupt himself.
- in dogma, is stubborn, inflexible rigid and compulsive.
- in the self-righteous teachings becomes self-righteous himself.
- in the oppressive rules becomes the oppressor himself.
- in the miracles of Jesus, then hopes for a miracle and loses his life.
- in the dehumanization of Jesus and Mary dehumanizes himself.
- in the intervention of God on earth is kidding himself.
- in help by means of worshipping the crucifix ends up in stultification.
- in absurd magic rituals, he himself lives with magical attitudes.
- in the cross of death and suffering lives in constant suffering.
- in the content of religious songs ends up in psychosis.
- in the salvation of the church is lazy, naive, gullible, stupid, ignorant.
- in the perverse sexual teachings becomes somewhat perverse.
- in the Vatican's dignitaries can never distinguish God from the devil.
- in the magic of redemption and salvation is lazy and becomes rotten.
- in neurotic, psychopathic and psychotic teachings, becomes so himself.

Humans' Malformed Creations

- Humans are lazy, lazy to think, sluggish, superficial, don't want to learn.
- Humans want easy, fast, simple and direct solutions for their salvation.
- Humans are submissive to authority, easily deceivable and easily enslaved.
- Humans are like blind sheep, driven herd animals and followers.
- Humans are cowardly and fearfully paralyzed by social pressure.
- Humans want to belong, otherwise they are alone and excluded.
- Humans themselves play a false, deceitful, deceiving game in life.
- Humans are psychically on the stage of development of a small child.
- Humans have enormous concealed guilt, partly real and partly self suggested.
- Humans do not have any substantial self-enlightenment and do not want any.
- Humans do not want to see, how their own parents are completely archaic.
- Humans are scared, to look at themselves in the inner mirror.
- Humans believe in 'holy lies' because they themselves lie, live in lies.
- Humans believe in archaic nonsense, because they themselves are archaic.
- ➔ These are the best conditions to mentally subjugate humans.
- ➔ Religious subjugation serves the governance and the economy.

Humans' Belief as Compensation

- Humans need the belief in order to live their quarrelsomeness.

- Humans cannot give up their belief, because they are stubborn.
- Humans live their sick cantankerousness with their belief.
- Humans are scared of life and therefore cling to their belief.
- Humans can live their own, open or concealed arrogance with their belief.
- Humans have such a small ego, that they refurbish it with belief.
- Humans think they are better with their belief, than non believers.
- Humans compensate their weak, instable self-confidence with their belief.
- Humans flee from themselves and their own inferiority with their belief.
- Humans see their life as unworthy and low; create balance with belief.
- Humans cannot live themselves and need the 'mother church'.
- Humans increase their extremely low and bad self-value with their belief.
- Humans tame with belief their 'unworthy' compulsiveness and lust.

➔ These are the best conditions to mentally subjugate humans.

➔ Religious subjugation serves the politics and the economics.

Humans' Belief for Displacement

- Humans hope for the redemption of their unconscious complexes with belief.
- Humans compensate their human weaknesses with their belief.
- Humans expect help from God and J.C. instead of helping themselves.
- Humans conceal with their low psychical-spiritual development with their belief.
- Humans have not been loved and hope to receive the love of God with their belief.
- Humans suppress their hate of their father, mother and life with their belief.
- Humans have an increased feeling of triumph, being in the 'true' belief.
- Humans strengthen their own imperiousness and their tyrannical personality.
- Humans choose illusions over the strong facts of life and human being.
- Humans have experienced suffering and in their belief experience comfort and relief.
- Humans don't have a genuine self-identity and find it in their community of believers.
- Humans are sickened by themselves, their own body and flee into belief.

➔ These are the best conditions to mentally subjugate humans.

➔ Religious subjugation serves the governance and the economy.

Humans' Fear of the Truth - Humans: ...

- are scared of the shock that the truth can release.
- do not want to take responsibility for the truth.
- do not have substantial knowledge, to question themselves or others.
- are submissive and masochistically bonded in their drive to religion.
- are orally unsaved and nurture themselves through fixation on belief.
- are scared, to recognize the devilish lies of the church.
- fear to recognize themselves, how they are deceived by the religion.
- lose their ground, when they recognize 'infallible' truth as a lie.

➔ These are the best conditions to mentally subjugate humans.

➔ Religious subjugation serves the governance and the economy.

The Crucifix: Source of the Evil

- ☠ Death penalty like the electric chair or the lethal injection today!
- ☠ Corpse: dead, end, sadness, suffering, hopelessness, darkness, forlornness, absence of God!
- ☠ No hope, no love, no care, no zest, no justice, and no power of the inner Spirit!
- ☠ No life, no joy of life, no happiness, no satisfaction, no lust, and no fulfillment!

☠ Accusation, reproach, heating up hate, depression, fear, guilt, rage and revenge!

Fundamentalism

- Fundamentalism in religion (and ideologies) is an expression of fear of life, and of ill and morbid cantankerousness.
- Fundamentalism in religion and ideologies is an expression of an undeveloped, distorted or malformed mind.
- Fundamentalism shows lack of being connected with the inner source of life that can be found with dreams and meditation.
- Fundamentalism shows complete absence of genuine confidence and a healthy inner foundation of the mind.

Religion and Spirituality: Yes! But ...

- Religion in its origin and genuine meaning is fundamentally supportive and guiding for people, if rooted in the other world (through the inner Spirit) and balanced with the physical existence.
- True religion integrates the mental functions, the body, the behavior, terrestrial life, the environment and the Archetypes of the Soul in a constructive and efficient way.
- With archaic religion or magic spirituality it is impossible to become a wholeness, to become complete and fulfilled in the mind and soul.

➔ The Concept of a 'true religion' is something totally different from the today existing religions, spirituality, and education. We call it the 'Archetypal Religion'.

The world population collectively respects and implements the archetypal principles for global peace, justice, protection, love, care, balance, human values, the truth, and the archetypal individual and collective development or humanity will end in a human made Armageddon within 10-20-30 years.
